

Office of Inspector General

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Office of Inspector General

Office Operating Plan
For Periods of
Lapsed Appropriations

September 2017

The FDIC Office of Inspector General (OIG) will remain open during any lapse in appropriations. Assessments paid to the Deposit Insurance Fund by insured institutions, and administered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, fund both the FDIC and the FDIC Office of Inspector General. Because the Deposit Insurance Fund is not derived from the U.S. Treasury, the FDIC remains funded during lapses of appropriations. The ongoing operation of the FDIC requires the continued operation of the FDIC Office of Inspector General during any government shutdown.
